ARTICLE I

1. Parties to the present Protocol may take such measures on the high seas as may be necessary to prevent, mitigate or eliminate grave and imminent danger to their coastline or related interests from pollution or threat of pollution by substances other than oil following upon a maritime casualty or acts related to such a casualty, which may reasonably be expected to result in major harmful consequences.
2. "Substances other than oil" as referred to in paragraph 1 shall be:

3. Whenever an intervening Party takes action with regard to a substance referred to in paragraph 2(a) that Party shall have the burden of establishing that the substance under the circumstances present at the time of the intervention could reasonably pose a grave and imminent danger analogous to that posed by any of the substances enumerated in the list referred to in paragraph 2(a).

ARTICLE II

1. The provisions of paragraph 2 of Article I and Articles II to VIII of the Convention Relating to Intervention on the High Seas in Cases of Oil Pollution Casualties, 1969 and the Annex thereto as they relate to oil shall be applicable with regard to the substances referred to in Article I of the present Protocol.
