The International Conference on Marine Pollution, 1973

NOTING that the International Convention for the Prevention of Marine Pollution from Ships, 1973, has conferred upon the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization and its Secretary-General important functions to be performed under the Convention,

RECOGNIZING the need for effective co-ordination of activities carried out by different international organizations concerned with the prevention and control of marine pollution,

RECOMMENDS that the Organization consult with and seek assistance from other international organizations and expert bodies concerned within the United Nations system, particularly the United Nations Environment Programme, in order to ensure the effective co-ordination of related activities within the United Nations system in achieving the objectives of the present Convention.
