

(4) that membership of the Committee shall be open to:

(a) Governments of all States, Members of IMCO, and

(b) Governments of all States Parties to the Convention on Facilitation of International Maritime Traffic which are not also Members of IMCO, provided however that, except in respect of questions relating to proposed amendments to the Convention on Facilitation of International Maritime Traffic and its Annex, the right to vote in the Committee shall be reserved to the representatives of Governments Members of IMCO.
