

PRODUCING FUTURE MARINE FUELS:

#IMOatCOP27

Opportunities for scaling up renewable energy production in developing countries.

IMO-UNCTAD-World Bank-IRENA side event at COP27

Identifying concrete collaboration opportunities between the shipping sector and renewable energy production and ports, with a special focus on developing countries.

Date: Thursday, 10 November 2022

Time: 18:30-20:00 (UTC+2)

Place: Akhenaten (Blue Zone)

Live streaming on the UNFCCC, YouTube channel:
<https://youtu.be/QAKXb-j2kCs>

Featuring

Mr. Kitack Lim
Secretary-General, IMO

Ms. Rebeca Grynspan
Secretary-General, UNCTAD

Mr. Nicolas Peltier
Global Transport Director, World Bank

Mr. Francesco La Camera
Director General, IRENA

Mr. Diego Pardow
Minister of Energy, Chile

Prof. Lynn Loo
CEO, Global Centre for Maritime Decarbonisation (GCMD), Singapore

Ms. Nawal Yousif Alhanaee
Director of the Future Energy Department, United Arab Emirates

Mr. Geoffrey Ross Pyatt,
Assistant Secretary of State for Energy Resources, United States

Mr. James Mnyupe
Presidential economic adviser, Namibia

Mr. José Firmo
CEO, Port of Açu, Brazil

Concepción Boo Arias
Chief Advisor, Climate & Green Transition Public & Regulatory Affairs, Maersk

Rear Admiral Reda Ahmed Ismail
Head of the Maritime Transport Sector, Egypt

Mr. Guy Platten
Secretary-General, ICS

Mr. Arsenio Dominguez (Moderator)
Director, Marine Environment Division, IMO