

UNITED NATIONS
OCEAN
CONFERENCE

LISBON
27 JUNE -
1 JULY
2022

INTERNATIONAL
MARITIME
ORGANIZATION

Global partnerships: Strengthening SDG 14 efforts in the shipping and fisheries sectors through a science-based, multi-tiered approach

Join us for a side-event on shipping and fisheries cooperation to tackle sea-based sources of marine litter.

Date: Tuesday 28 June 2022

Time: 14:30-15:45 PM

Place: Side Event Room 2, Altice Arena
Lisbon, Portugal

Opening

Mr Kitack Lim
Secretary-General, IMO

Mr Bård Vegar Solhjell
Director General, Norad

Presentations

Dr Jose Matheickal
Chief of the Department of Partnerships and Projects, IMO
Presentation 1: A Multi-tiered approach to partnerships: Glo-X

Dr Andrew Hudson
Head, Water & Ocean Governance Programme, UNDP
Presentation 2: Experience of the Glo-X model of interventions to support global regulatory frameworks and catalysing innovation and implementation

Prof. David Vousden
Chair of GESAMP
Presentation 3: Scientific guidance for the UN system: the role of GESAMP

Panel Discussion

Ms Paola Acuña Chacón
Lawyer, MOPT, Costa Rica

Dr Matthew Camilleri
Senior Fisheries Officer Leader, Global and Regional Processes (Fisheries), FAO

Mr Tore Strand
Subject Matter Expert, Wilhemsen, GloLitter Global Industry Alliance member organization

Mr Fredrik Haag (Moderator)
Head, Office for the London Convention/Protocol and Ocean Affairs, MED, IMO

Food and Agriculture
Organization of the United Nations

Norad

UNITED NATIONS
OCEAN
CONFERENCE

LISBON
27 JUNE -
1 JULY
2022

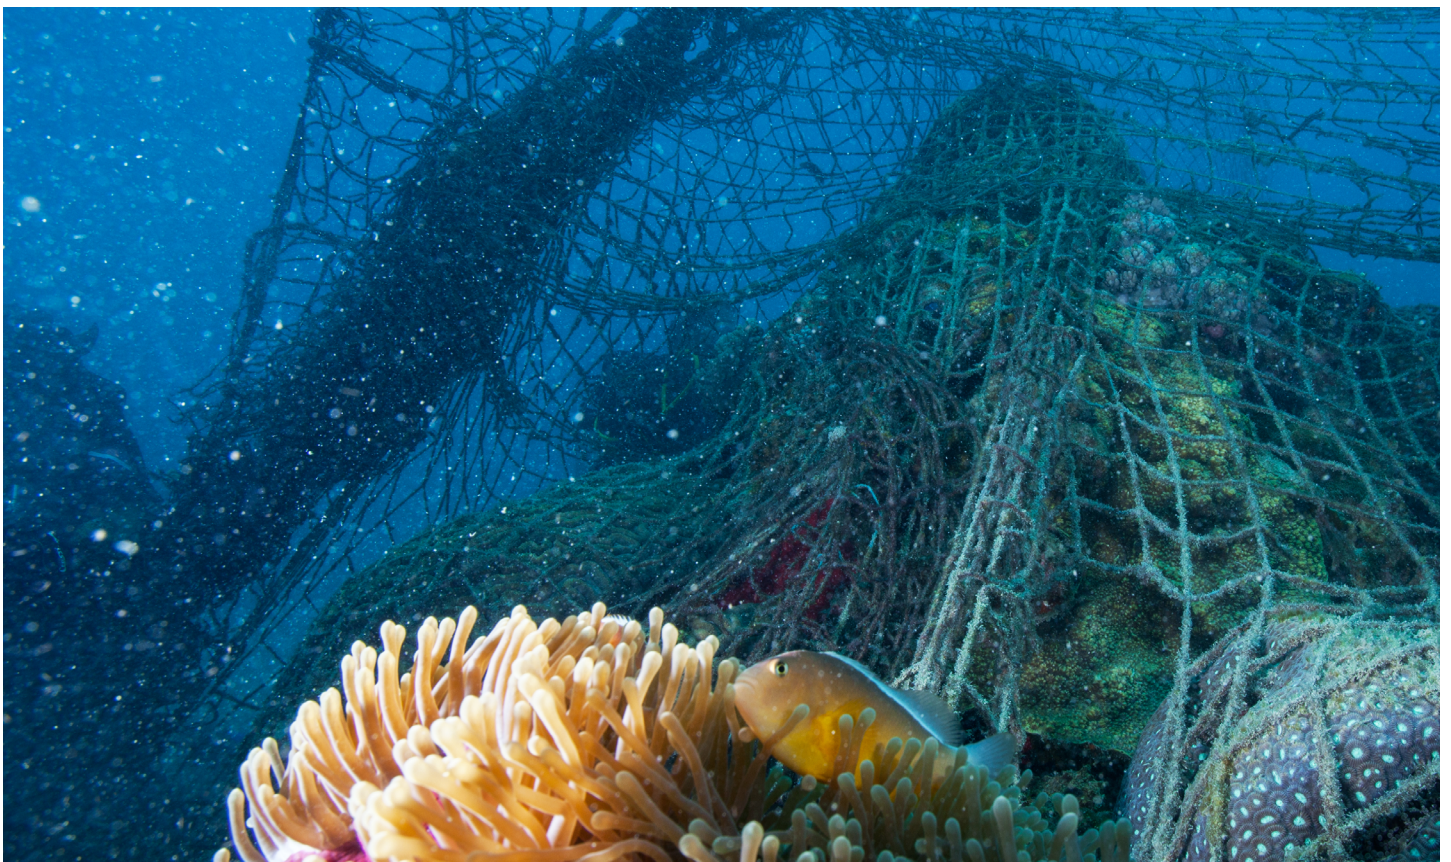

INTERNATIONAL
MARITIME ORGANIZATION

About the event

The event will focus on how international organizations can successfully partner with national governments, private sector, and academia to address sea-based marine plastic litter from shipping and fisheries.

The GloLitter Partnerships project supports 30 developing countries from 5 regions (Asia, Africa, Caribbean, Latin America and Pacific) and raises awareness of sea-based marine plastic litter. The project will share examples of global and regional activities involving various stakeholders to find innovative solutions.

Food and Agriculture
Organization of the United Nations

Norad