Permanent Representation of the Argentine Republic to the International Maritime Organization

Ref: National measures regarding the COVID-19 pandemic

London, 06 July 2020.

The Representation of the Argentine Republic to the International Maritime Organization presents its compliments to the Secretariat of the International Maritime Organization and has the honour to report measures that Argentina has taken in the field of accreditations and certificates to tackle the situation caused by the COVID-19 pandemic.

The competent Argentine authority –Ministry of Transport has authorised a new special extension for national and international accreditations and certificates issued to National Merchant Navy personnel until 31st December 2020. Likewise, those national and international accreditations and certificates that expire between January 1, 2021 and June 30, 2021 have been granted an extension of THREE (3) months from their expiration dates.

The Representation of the Republic of Argentina to the International Maritime Organization would avail itself of this opportunity to reiterate to the Secretariat of the International Maritime Organization the assurances of its highest consideration.

SECRETARIAT OF THE
