International Maritime Prize

The International Maritime Prize is awarded annually by the IMO Council to the individual or organization judged to have made the most significant contribution to the work and objectives of IMO.

Since the presentation in 1981 of the 1980 International Maritime Prize, 38 distinguished recipients from 21 countries and one organization have received this prestigious award.

Today, the 2018 International Maritime Prize will be presented to Mr. Joseph J. Angelo, who becomes the 39th recipient of the silver dolphin statuette. In addition, a special certificate for his contribution to the work of the Organization will be awarded to:

- Admiral Mohab Mohamed Hussein Mameesh, former Chair and Managing Director of the Suez Canal Authority, nominated by Egypt

RECIPIENT OF THE 2018 INTERNATIONAL MARITIME PRIZE

Mr. Joseph J. Angelo

Former Deputy Managing Director of the International Association of Independent Tanker Owners (INTERTANKO), nominated by the United States of America and INTERTANKO

IMO Award for Exceptional Bravery at Sea

This annual award provides international recognition for those who, at the risk of losing their own life, perform acts of exceptional bravery, displaying outstanding courage in attempting to save life at sea or in attempting to prevent or mitigate damage to the marine environment.

There are three categories of honour: firstly, the Award itself, for the nominee judged to have performed the most outstanding act of bravery. Secondly, Certificates of Commendation for nominees who have committed acts of extraordinary bravery. And, thirdly, Letters of Commendation for nominees who are judged to deserve some special recognition for their meritorious actions.

The first Award was presented in 2007 and, over the last 12 years, 19 recipients nominated by 13 countries/organizations have been bestowed with the Award medal, more than 55 certificates have been presented and more than 90 letters of commendation have been sent.
