Strategic direction, if applicable:	7
Output:	7.1
Action to be taken:	Paragraph 4
Related document:	MSC 99/INF.2

General

1   The Global Integrated Shipping Information System (GISIS) presently consists of 34 modules, with a further six under development, for the collection, processing and sharing of shipping-related data in order to assist Member States and the Secretariat in carrying out their respective and complementary duties, generate reports and provide information about shipping to the public.

2   There are approximately 260,000 public-registered IMO web accounts with access to the public area of GISIS. In addition, approximately 15,000 Member-authorized accounts have access to the Members' Area of GISIS.

List of GISIS modules with status of development and data access

3   The list of the GISIS modules is given in the annex, along with their status of development, as well as current agreed data access levels by Members, the Secretariat, members of the public and other entities.

Action requested of the Committee

4   The Committee is invited to note the information provided.
