

The Maritime Just Transition Task Force is working towards a Just Transition for seafarers by developing a Baseline Training Framework for seafarers in decarbonization.

This joint project with the IMO involves the development of generic competency standards for ammonia, methanol and hydrogen, alongside a Training Framework, an Instructor Handbook and a Trial Roll Out of the Train-the-Trainer Programme by the World Maritime University with the Maritime Technology Cooperation Center.

Presenter Alishba Zaman UN Global Compact
Email: alishba@oceanstewardshipcoalition.org